verse 3

early one morning, nailed to a cross, the Lord knew of this day thorns on His brow, tears in His eyes, He knows that it's the only way mocked by the people He came to help, some not knowing what He's done prays to the Father, takes His last Breath, oh the battle's just begun.

chorus 2

'cuz on His heart He knew He had to do, shed His blood for all the sins for me and you He'll rise again in days the number will be three, and as the Savior died, He was thinking of you and me and on His heart He knew He had to do, shed His blood for all the sins for me and you He conquered death, then He claimed the victory, and` as the Savior rised
